RECORD BREAKER.*Mackerel Trip Made in Less Than Four Hours.*Many of the Fleet Now in Bay of Fundy.

Since our last report, several seiners have arrived with fares aggregating 1578 barrels of salt mackerel, all but one of the trips being from Georges. Schs. Lena and Maud and Lizzie M. Center have over 300 barrels each, while most of the other vessels have good fares.

The fleet report that the schools on Georges are now pretty well broken up, and with the exception of one day no fish have been taken for a week.

The little schooner Mary Emerson, Capt. Thomas H. Martin, made a record-breaking trip on Tuesday. She sailed from here at 11 o'clock on the forenoon of that day, and at 2.30 o'clock was back at Fort wharf with a fare of 70 barrels of fresh mackerel, which she caught seven miles southeast by south from Eastern Point. Capt. Martin reports that he did not get the whole of the school, and that several schools were seen. W. W. Wonsen bought the fish at 4 1-2 cents apiece.

Sch. Madonna, which was towed to this port from the Isles of Shoals Tuesday afternoon, went to Boston to market her fresh fish.

Sch. Pleiades arrived at Provincetown Tuesday with 40 bbls. salt mackerel.

Sch. Leander F. Gould arrived at Provincetown this forenoon with 210 barrels of salt mackerel.

Quite a fleet of seiners are now gathering in the Bay of Fundy and chances are that the fleet now in port will go that way.

At Boston to-day are schs. Minerva, 16 barrels fresh mackerel from Race Point; Madonna, from Bay of Fundy, 30,000 fresh mackerel, and Mertie and Delmar, from Georges, with 138 barrels salt mackerel and 5000 fresh mackerel in count. New fresh mackerel brought 6 and 7 cents apiece, the fare of sch. Madonna being sold at 6 cents each.

The Bay of Fundy fleet are now finding fish to the eastward of Mt. Desert Rock.

The fare of salt mackerel of sch. Wm. H. Cross sold to Fred Bradley at $8 50 per bbl.
